Subject: ADEQ "Area A" definition or applicability

Hi Nancy,

I have been informed by Hickman that the reason why their Arlington facility is covered under the Arizona Ag BMP is because ADEQ considers that they are engaged in a regulated agricultural activity in "Area A". I understand that the regulated agricultural activity now includes animal, not just crops.

I tried to look up what Area A means, but I can't find it. Do you know what that means?

Janice
